The building housing our pizzeria has an intriguing history. From the date of its construction in the early 1900's, it served as a livery stable and, for a short period, a storage shed. In the early 1930's, Frank Riha converted a portion of the ground floor to a crude, but functional saloon while a loft, complete with hay, remained in the rear of the building. The saloon, over the years, was witness to a number of proprietors, the longest of which were Carl & Irene Johnson who successfully operated for 37½ years under the name "The Hayloft" and later "My Wife's Place". On November 2, 1983, it was acquired by the present owners, Mark & Kathie Larson. Carl still resides in the Village of Mishicot enjoying retirement. Irene went to her eternal rest on November 26, 1988. On April 14, 1989, My Wife's Place was converted to the Mishicot Pizzeria. As the bill of fare expanded, so did its name to its current Mishicot Pizzeria, Rib & Spaghetti House.

Local lore, although somewhat obscure, reflects an unsavory and, in some circles,unmentionable history as well. The exact dates are lost in the days of yore, but it seems the second floor or perhaps loft served as a brothel for a short period after the constabulary in our nearby City of Manitowoc decided to enforce the law more vigorously causing the ladies of the night to flee and ply their trade in other communities. (If this comedic attempt in handling what is a distasteful subject to some is offensive, we apologize. It is purely this authors method of portraying a true representation of our history).

We sincerely hope you enjoy your stay with us and especially enjoy your meal. Please take some time to visit our village's gift shops, antique shops and art gallaries as well as our very own museum. Above all, may The Lord take a liking to you and make you come back quick!
